LATEST DEVELOPMENTS

1. (SBU) As of 0715 EST, the WikiLeaks Working Group logged 49 new leaked cables. This brings the number of released cables in some public forum to approximately 1199. (WWG01)

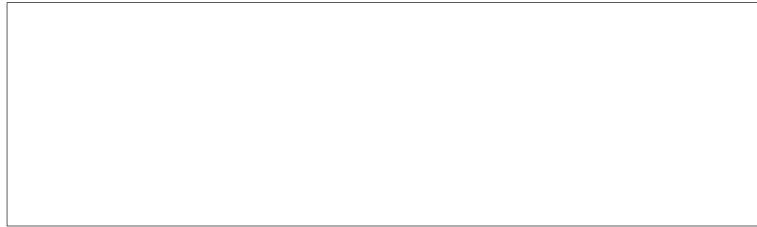

2. (SBU) Le Monde reports French web company OVH sought a magistrate's ruling on the legality of its local hosting of the WikiLeaks site following French government calls to end the service. Embassy Paris reports as of 1800 EST December 3 the site was still in operation. (WWG01/Embassy Paris telcon)

3. (U) PayPal has permanently restricted the account used by WikiLeaks due to a violation of the PayPal Acceptable Use Policy, which states that payment service cannot be used for any activities that encourage, promote, facilitate, or instruct others to engage in illegal activity. (Huffingtonpost.com)

4. (U) The Government of Mauritius plans to summon the British High Commissioner after a leaked U.S. cable suggested a new marine park around the disputed Chagos Islands was a ploy to keep indigenous islanders from returning home. Mauritius Foreign Affairs Minister Boolell said the cable confirmed his government's belief the protected area was a smoke-screen. (Reuters)

6. (SBU) Thai media extensively covered comments by Embassy Bangkok at Government House emphasizing the normal nature of diplomatic reporting on meetings with government officials as well the strength of the U.S.-Thai relationship. (WWG01/Embassy Bangkok e-mail)

7. (SBU) A special task force has been established by Taiwan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs to monitor Taiwan-related documents expected to be released soon by WikiLeaks. (OSC Reston VA 40436)

8. (SBU) Kuala Lumpur's Home Ministry said it had information concerning two Malaysian-based companies which were, according to leaked cables, controlled by an Iranian network to source missile technology from China. (MilSec 86640)

17. (SBU) Sri Lankan media focused on the release by The Guardian of alleged reporting that accuses President Rajapaksa, his brother, and opposition candidate General Fonseka of war crimes. (WWG01/Embassy Colombo e-mail)

18. (U) Addressing reporters at a press conference, Pakistan People's Party Punjab President Warraich demanded action against the ambassadors and other 'culprits' involved in the WikiLeaks revelations, terming the WikiLeaks report a conspiracy against the Muslim world. (Lahore Daily Times)

19. (U) The chief of the Awami Muslim League said the revelations made by WikiLeaks are a cause for shame for the entire Pakistani nation and that no one has been spared. (Islamabad Daily Express)

21. (U) Argentine press gave positive coverage of the Secretary's December 2 call with President Fernandez de Kirchner, highlighting the timeliness of the call and the rank at which it was made, noting other countries received calls from lower-ranking U.S. officials. (Buenos Aires 1814)

22. (U) The presidents of Spain, Venezuela, Bolivia, and Nicaragua were absent at the Iberoamerican summit in Mar Del Plata. Though all cited reasons for their late cancelation that were unrelated to the WikiLeaks releases, the alleged reporting plants doubts about the supposed regional unity each leader professes. (AP)

23. Minimize considered.
